Every week shows an increase. The crops through the start of the star 9,405,170 1,352,111 3,625,226 9.739.453 Every week shows an increase. The crops throughout the Western States are likely to be larger than ever before known, and as soon as the harvests are over, the receipts at tide water will, without doubt, show a greater weekly increase than has thus far been realized. Recent advices from Europe hold out few inducements for shipment of breadstuffs, and unless some favorable change takes place in the markets of Great British, or the crops of that country prove less abundant than an-ticipated, prices must rule throughout the season at the lowest points. The quantity of certain articles cleared at this port for transportation on the canal, during the third week in July, was as follows:—Merchandise, at 8 mills, 1,189,700 lbs; sugars, 933,900 do.; molasses, 166,300 do.; coffee, 161,300 do.; nails and spikes, 81,100 do.; iron, 77,200 do.; railroad iron, 2,167,200 do.; steel, 13,200 do.; sheet iron and tin, 101,960 do.; crockery and glass ware, $2,600 do.; fish, 241,300 do.; sundries, 16,500 do. The following shows a few of the principal articles lauded at Buffalo, from the opening of navigation to July 21, for two seasons:—

BRILLIANT DISCOVERIES.—"THE DECAPITATION of Thes. Ewhank, Esq., Commissioner of Patents, by the executive," was one of Day's most wonderful discover, i.e., "in honer of which" he gave a "select dinner" in Washington last winter. This discovery, however, was imaximative merely. The payment to Goodynear in 1887, of $5,020 for a license to work under Goodynear's Patent, which Day has only lastely discovered is of no use, is a great discovery, but made too late to benefit him. Day's ofter of $50 reward for the conviction of infringers on Goodynear's Patents, on which he himself has been the chief, and is now the only intringer, was a brilliant conception of Day's and undoubtedly criginal with him. Day's discovery of Goodynear's great is a convenient of which he himself has been the chief, and is now the only intringer, was a brilliant conception of Day's and undoubtedly criginal with him. Day's discovery of Goodynear's great limit for his patent therefor, at an expense to Day of only $60 for which has been the cortex in Goodynear's factors at this limit to the best of another.

NEWS BY THE MAILS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24, 1851.

The Marshal Testimonial—Sickness at Girard College—Two Persons Drowned.

A movement is about to be made in this city, by cur most respectable and estimable citizens, in be-half of the complimentary benefit to Manager Marshal, soon to be given in your city. Mr. Marshal has won oceans of friends in this city during his long connection with theatrical affairs, as manager of the Walnut, who, appreciating his many virtues and gentlemanly deportment, would go any lengths to serve him.

The lady of President Allen, of the Girard College, and about twenty of the orphans, are down with the dysentery, by which two of the boys have been carried off during the present week; their names were Joseph M. Graeff and Jacob Azendorff. Nearly all the children have been dispersed from the institution, for the present, by allowing their relatives to take them into the country, as, how-ever, is the general practice every summer. Sideaths, in all, have now occurred in that institu-tion, among 311 boys, since its opening in January, 1847.

Two cases of drowning have occurred in the last 1847.

Two cases of drowning have occurred in the last twenty-four hours—one was the son of Mr. George Husbands, of West Philadelphia, who slipped into Moyland's mill dam, while fishing; and the other an English sailor, William Eurton, who was last night knocked overboard from the brig Friendship, by the jib sheet, while opposite Callowhill street wharf.

An anction wharf.

An auction house doing business in Marketstreet, failed a few days since for over $200,000.

The bark Paez, Captain Wilkins, from Porto Cabello, with a cargo of 1,300 bags of coffee, arrived here this morning.

Union College Commencement. After a very pleasant voyage up the Hudson, in the fleet Reindeer, a boat second to none in point of either elegance or comfort, I reached Albany, the ancient head of Dutch navigation in this country, about 5 P.M., and was, soon after, whisked over in the cars to this place, sometimes 'yelipt Durip. Paradoxical as it may seem, the Commencement was the last part of the exercises on this occasion, which opened with an address be-fore the Theological Society, by the Rev. Mr. Beecher, of Albany. Not being present, I can give no particulars. Report saith, however, that if the speaker's arguments were wanting in depth, they were certainly not deficient in length. On Monday evening the Hon. Michael Sandford deli-vered an oration before the Senate of Union Col-lege, who marched in procession to the church, marshalled by D. C. Russell, Esq., a member of the Chi Psi Fraternity. This oration was sound and vigorous, possessing, moreover, the merit of brevity.

the Chi Psi Fraterinity. This oration was sound and vigorous, possessing, moreover, the merit st brevity.

On Tuesday morning the Kappa Alpha Society held its quarterly celebration. In the afternoon there was an address before the Phi Beta Kappa. Association, by T. Clark, Esq. This was well attended, and elicited much applause. But the gem of the whole affair was the oration spoken by Mr. Whipple, of Boston, before the literary societies in the evening. This gentleman sustained most ably, on this occasion, his brilliant reputation as a littrateur. Every one that had the good fortune to hear him that night seemed delighted.

This morning the Commencement exercises took place in the Pre-byterian Church, when over forty speeches were delivered before a crowded audience. As specimens of manly eloquence, we noticed especially the addresses of Messrs. Crocker, Vedder, Henry, Matteson, Edwards, &c. The valedictory address was spoken by W. F. Jones; this excited great attention, and brought down loud applause. I must not forget to mention Mr. C. S. Vedder's poom on Bloomerism, which, of course, was exceedingly interesting to the fairer part of the audience.

In conclusion, I cannot but think that old Union

In conclusion, I cannot but think that old Union fully sustained ber venerable renown on this occasion. as a favorite haunt of science, art, and literature.

One of the Alumni. Our Buenos Ayres Correspondence. BUENOS AYRES, May 28, 1851.

Aspect of Affairs in this Republic—The Prospect of War, &c.

The affairs of this and the neighboring provinces continue in a very unsettled condition. It is quite certain that a large number of Brazillan troops are not the frontier, and the government of Brazillan. on the frontier, and the government of Buenos Ayres has now another enemy to contend with in Urquiza, the Governor of the Province of Entre-Rios.

Both parties have been evincing hostile intentions towards each other for some time past, but tions towards each other for some time past, but during the past week Urquiza has been denounced in the official newspapers as a traitor, villain, drunkard, and a great many other names, which convey a very bad meaning.

How long things will remain as they are, without coming to an open rupture, it is impossible to say. A person accustomed to the promptness of the American government would suppose that a bloody war would very soon follow the great threats which are daily made on both sides, but the glory of the people of South America seems to be "to sit still."

From the Governor down to the lowest peon in the streets, they can argue upon the most trifling the streets, they can argue upon the most trifling matter, till one's patience is wearied out. I shall keep you informed of the state of affairs

The Herald finds its way into the public reading rooms of this city, as indeed I have found it wherever my travels have carried me.

Our Venezuela Correspondence.

CARACCAS, July 1, 1851.

Repudiation by the Government of the Honors Paul to Gen. Paez in the United States—Distinguishal Men Imprisoned-Precarious State of Affairs, &c. We have nothing of importance to communicate, which would prove amusing or instructive to the readers of the Herald, as regards Venezuela. As the cabinet ministers are, and have been, changed nearly every month since the Monagases commenced their reign in 1847, such a change does not occupy a passing thought with us. On the 15th ult., the executive government passed a resolution directing the collector of Laguayra to return to the consignees a case containing a description of the reception of General Paez at Washington, with a view to its being sent back to the United States. This government cannot endure the idea of having respect paid to that illustrious hero who has done so much for his country, trious hero who has done so much for his country, and after securing her peace and independence, laid by his sword, as did the immortal Washing on, and was called by a popular vote of his countrymen to be their first President and ohief civil magistrate, and under whose administration Venezuela was presperous and happy.

A few weeks since, Generals Justo Boiceno, Jacinto Gutierrez, Commandant Juan J. Illas and A. M. Monsanto, were arrested and thrust into prison, on suspicion of having some revolutionary ideas; but nothing having been proved against them, they have been liberated. Such movements on the part of the government are for the purpose of having a pretext to keep up the military, and to continue a despotic and arbitrary government. José Gregorio, as did his brother José Tadio, commenced a conservative course for some two or three months, when they were surrounded by some of the most diabolical characters that ever disturbed the peace, and quiet of a nation; and adhering to the Counset talent and integrit, has been selected, he has been obliged to course from principle, or is turned out for additing to a course which he deemed best for his country.

The democratic republican party, who are geneadht; ing to a course which he deemed best for his country.

The democratic republican party, who are generally called the Paca party, are the wealthy and educated party, and have given up all political agitation. They reserve their votes and attend to their business, having something to lose. The liberal party (so called), notwithstanding the government of the country was left entirely in their hands, without a single opposing vote, finding they could not all live at the public crib, commenced quarrelling among themselves, dividing their own party, military and civil. To satisfy the military, they are kept in service; their pay takes preference to the civilians, and this creates disasisfaction. The country can never hold up its head again until there is a radical change. Every office holder who has the handling of the public money is a defaulter to a large amount, and goes unpunished, because every member of Congress is an office seeker, and waiting his turn to follow suit. This is the present state of affairs in this once prosperous and ence well governed republic. governed republic.

Figurive SLAVE Case.—United States Marshal A. E. Roberts, of Philadelphia, arrived here in the boat on Tuesday night, having in his custody the slave, Daniel Hawkins, who was recently recovered under the Fugitive Slave law, in Philadelphia, by his owner, Mr. W. M. Risteau, of Baltimore county, Beltimore American, July 24.
